

HOW AN IDEA BECOMES PART OF YOUR CONTRACT

All MGEU members work under the protection of a contract (aka collective agreement) negotiated with their employer. The MGEU oversees hundreds of contracts and each one is built upon democratic principles. Bargaining is a complicated process and no two rounds of bargaining are the same.

Here's generally how it works.

STRIKE – Can help apply pressure on employer. A majority must vote in favour, but a positive vote does not automatically result in job action.

ARBITRATION – Each party presents their case to a third-party arbitrator who assesses the arguments and makes a legally-binding ruling.

CONCILIATION – To help reach a resolution, the two parties each talk separately with a conciliator, who advises and makes proposals to each side but doesn't impose a settlement.

MEDIATION – Both parties return to the bargaining table with a neutral third party mediator who facilitates face-to-face discussion but doesn't impose a settlement.
